Dr. Condon Tells How He Contacted Accused and Sat for Hour on Park Bench Pleading Return of Baby

Aged Go-Between's Accusation Hurled At Stolid German Who Blanches Under Attack as Doctor's Words Uttered

FLEMINGTON, N.J., Jan. 9.—A motion by Chief Defence Counsel Edward K. Reilly for a mistrial in the case of Bruno Richard Hauptmann was denied today by Justice Thomas W. Trenchard.

By WILLIAM A. KINNEY
Copyright, 1935, by the Associated Press
FLEMINGTON, N.J., Jan. 9.—Dr. John F. (Jafie) Condon glared at Bruno Richard Hauptmann in murder court today and said he was the "John" who negotiated for and received the $50,000 Lindbergh ransom.

The elderly Bronx doctor had been on the stand only a few minutes when he waved an extended finger toward the prosecutor who questioned him about his "slippery" suit, and said: "John" was Bruno Richard Hauptmann.

The notorious prisoner, accused of kidnapping and murdering Baby Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., nearly three years ago, blanched first and then turned a deep red. He glared back at the witness, then averted his face.

Condon also identified the letter he received in response to the newspaper advertisement which projected the return of the Lindbergh case a month after the baby was stolen, and subsequent notes.

He related that he pleaded with the man, calling upon him to ponder what his mother would think of his actions, and offered to give him an overcoat because his own seemed thin.

"He coughed," said Jafie, "it was what they call a 'slippery cough'."

Whatever the cough was like, Dr. Condon told the court he didn't want to imitate it. The long interview, he testified, ended with "John" saying he would send the money "slippery" suit, and said: "John" was Bruno Richard Hauptmann.

The two of them sat on a bench near a shack in the park as they talked. "John" requesting himself to be only the emissary for others, following his identification as the man who had abruptly into the ransom notes.

INVESTIGATES NOTES
When Wilets handed the shaggy Jafie ransom notes to identify, the civilian investigator, he glanced and examined the notes with meticulous care for several minutes before identifying them.

Wilets took the ransom notes to the jury box and read the first four names and eight men the first communication. Jafie received from the kidnapper.

"It is," Dr. Condon asked to act as intermediary.

"Dear Sir: If you are willing to act as go-between in Lindbergh case please follow the enclosed letter to Mr. Lindbergh. It will explain everything. I will send you about $10,000 as soon as we find out the price or money is not everything is caused and it will be a further delay. After you get money from Mr. Lindbergh, I will put them there three words the American money is ready."

"After that we will give you further instructions. I am afraid we are not out for your 1000 $ but only act strictly. Be at home every night between 11 by this time you will hear from us."

JAFIE DESIGNATED
There was an enclosed note in that first letter addressed to Col. Higgins, designating Condon as the intermediary in the negotiations. Wilets read this document very carefully in the light of the note.

That one read:
"It is a disgrace of Dr. Condon as intermediary."

"Dear Mr. Condon may act as go-between. You must call him the 70,000. Make one packet this will be about a dozen of small bills."

"We have notified you already in that kind of bills. We are not to see any trap in any way. If you or someone is notified the police there will be a further delay after we have the money in hand we will send you to find your boy."

"You may have an airplane ready it is about 150 mi. away before taking you. The delay of 8 hours will be between."

Hauptmann continued to stare grimly at the witness stand as the ransom note was read.

He appeared crestfallen. He paid no attention to Wilets as the latter read the note.

Condon identified one ransom note as having been received on the night of about March 8, 1932.

HAD ITS SYMBOL
He identified it as said, "by the peculiar symbol of three holes" as well as by its general appearance. "I thought it strange," he said, "that a man of his age and grey hair should be so interested in the first letter from the kidnappers."

BARROWMAN IS NAMED FOR LIBERAL SEAT

Enthusiastic Convention at Lethbridge Seeks to Honor Mayor

LETHBRIDGE, Jan. 9.—In one of the largest and most enthusiastic conventions in their history, which was marked by an address by J. E. Evanson, until recently mayor of Lethbridge for the past eight years, Robert Barrowman, mayor of Lethbridge for the past eight years, was nominated as the Liberal standard-bearer for the seat in the forthcoming provincial elections by the Lethbridge Liberal Association on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Evanson, who is well known throughout Southern Alberta, after his return to the Liberal party along the same line as his speech at Cypress convention.

"I have been with the U. F. A. for many years now, but I am returning to Liberalism for I cannot stand the U. F. A. any longer," he declared then. "I am now with the Liberal party as I was before affiliating with the U. F. A. movement. I believe the Liberals will form the next government and the U. F. A. will give Alberta good government."

S. J. Shepherd and Senator W. A. McLeod spoke of the extremely high interest rates on the indebtedness in the coming federal and provincial elections.

In the selection of Mayor Barrowman the Liberals have made a choice of one of the strongest men in Southern Alberta. Mayor Barrowman has always taken a wide interest in Labor and Liberal policies and is considered an able administrator with an efficient knowledge of the economic and political problems of Southern Alberta. He is first vice-president of the Alberta Provincial Liberal Association.

Rifted Interests Promise Fireworks Upon Leadership

CALGARY, Jan. 9.—With the U.F.A. convention only a few days away, rumblings in the machinery of this organization are already being heard, and indications are that a battle for the leadership is imminent.

Robert Gardiner M.P. for Acadia, present president of the U.F.A., is still suffering from ill health and has requested that he be relieved of his duties this year but the set-up may force him again into the running.

The name of E. J. Garland, M.P. for the River, is also being prominently mentioned in connection with the presidency, but the Bow River may also have incurred the displeasure of Henry Wood, vice leader of the U.F.A., who is expected to oppose his aspirations in this respect. However,

City Aides Get Clarke Ultimatum

"If You Don't Want to Accept Salary Cut I'll Get Some One Else in Your Place," He Says Terse.

Hanging fire for the past month, the contentious city salary question came to a head Wednesday morning when Mayor Joseph A. Clarke said that if department heads refused to accept an extra 10 per cent reduction in salary, "We can get men to do the work for less money."

This statement was made at a conference of departmental superintendents and the special salary committee held in the council chamber. No decision was made on the proposed salary reduction, superintendents asking for permission to re-open negotiations at a later date and at the aid of the chair.

Ed J. W. Fry, chairman of the Finance Committee, said that the city and the party, which was attended by Mayor Joseph A. Clarke, said that if department heads refused to accept an extra 10 per cent reduction in salary, "We can get men to do the work for less money."

JUST ATTITUDE CLAIM
The mayor's remark that men could be hired for less money than they were being paid, was met by a statement of one of the civic leaders that any such statement was a reflection on the men taken on the question of salary cuts.

It is assuming that the heads of departments are getting more money than they are worth, and that they don't think the scale of proposed salaries was fair as being the department officials and the city earning less money. "We are being paid more than we are worth," said one of the civic leaders, "and I don't know what you are going to do about it. I have a contract with the city, and I am not going to break it."

In submitting the list of suggested salaries, the mayor said that he was not going to accept any salary cut.

4. BRITISH JOBLESS UNDER NEW BOARD

CENTRALIZING OF DOLE SYSTEM IS GIGANTIC TASK

Needs of Million Families Considered by Tribunal, Part of "Machine With Soul."

LONDON, Jan. 9.—Britain's new unemployment insurance board was taking over from local authorities yesterday the administration of relief under the dole system, which on March 1 will mean taking control of 4,000,000 unemployed persons.

Full control of the dole system will not be accomplished until March, but 240 local offices which came into existence Monday began their work.

Sir Henry Betterton, newly created baron, is head of the board. He will be personal guardian of Britain's jobless and in effect administrator of government expenditures totaling $75,000,000 annually.

EQUALITY, UNIFORMITY.

The move to centralize relief work, Sir Henry declared, would make for equality of treatment and uniform administration throughout the country.

"The board is fully alive to the fact that the needs of 1,000,000 families affected cannot be forced into one mold," Sir Henry said. He cited the fact that needs vary in different localities and therefore allowances for rent must vary also. He said allowances for children will be liberalized and more generous provisions made for the personal requirements of wage earners.

134 APPEAL BOARDS.

Applicants will have the right of appeal for this purpose to 130 appeal tribunals set up by the board. The board has wide discretionary powers, but Sir Henry pointed out that it would not be a "machine without a soul."

Between now and March 1, the board will have direct control of 1,000,000 persons and the entire transfer will be completed by March 1.

INSURANCE BRANCH.

The proposed changes in the insurance system drafted by the unemployment assistance board before Christmas provided allowances of three shillings weekly for each child under five years old gradually to 10 shillings to dependent 21-year olds.

Part of the new system took effect Monday while the rest will come into force March 1.

At least minimum of 24 shillings weekly for man and wife is provided in the new scale of payments, which will apply to unemployed persons receiving financial relief.

Between 3,000,000 and 4,000,000 persons are expected to benefit under the new plan.

Recently Hochmuth served in the war of 1870 between France and Germany. Says the court record:

CASUAL EARNER CONCESSIONS CONSIDERED

Exemption Spread May Ease Up Things For Recipients

Another concession will be given direct relief recipients if a recommendation by the civil finance committee creating a change in the system of casual earnings is adopted by city council.

At the regular meeting of the committee Tuesday, A. McKenzie and Sir Parsons, of the Unemployed Ex-Servicemen's Association, informed aldermen that a number of returned soldiers on relief had made casual earnings ranging from $14 to $21 weekly for the past few days during the Christmas mail rush.

It was further stated that exemptions on this amount were $5 a month for a man and wife and $2 for each child, the remainder of the sum earned going toward the payment of the family's relief bill.

The delegates suggested that the exemptions be spread over a two-month period, thus making the amount retained by the relief recipient $10 for a man and wife and $4 for each child.

GETS RECOMMENDATION.

On the motion of A. J. W. Findlay, a recommendation to this effect was made to council. It was also recommended that in the event of a further amount being earned the relief case must secure the approval of the relief superintendent as to what percentage of the earnings could be retained by the recipient.

The two-month scheme, as applied to men earning amounts during the Christmas season, means that a relief recipient would be allowed to keep $10 for himself and his wife and $4 for each child, instead of only $5 and $2 as provided for on the monthly basis.

CARELESS SPENDERS.

Speaking to the question of casual earnings, H. F. McKee, manager of the special relief department, asked for a definite policy to guide him in this connection. He cited a case of a man going off relief last summer earning $500 and coming back on relief two months after he had finished work. Mr. McKee explained that the average amount of relief for a family was approximately $500 a year, and deplored the fact that those earning money were not more careful in the spending of it.

BENNETT PLAN IS FOUND NOT COMPREHENSIVE

Ottawa Expected Radio, Aviation, Would be Included

OTTAWA, Jan. 9.—Creation of a department of communications "which will ensure a greater degree of efficiency in the nation's wire and wireless communications," announced by Premier R. B. Bennett last night, has caused some surprise in Ottawa. The surprise is chiefly that the new department is not more comprehensive.

Much consideration has been given to a report submitted to the government to build up a new department to be known as a department of communications and transportation. This would have brought into one department the government services in flying, radio, telegraphs and telephones, as well as railways and canals. The Prime Minister, however, last night spoke only of wire and wireless communications.

LONG FEDERAL SERVICE

The government has some 10,000 miles of telegraph, telephone and cable lines. For the most part they serve sections of the country which otherwise would be without such communication. These telegraph and telephone lines stretch along the north shore of the St. Lawrence river and in sections of Nova Scotia, particularly Cape Breton, with cable services to adjacent islands. There are also Dominion government lines in some sections of Saskatchewan. A line stretching into the Peace River district and into the isolated points of the Yukon and exclusive services in British Columbia including Vancouver Island where they serve remote fishing villages and shipping points. At present they are all under the department of public works and engineering.

CORPORATIONS PREDOMINATE.

Wireless and radio is divided into two departments in addition to the Canadian Radio Commission. The department of marine operates all the many wireless stations that serve as aids to navigation. The department of national defence operates a series of stations to the mouth of the Mackenzie river. However, at present the bulk of "wire and wireless communications" in Canada is handled by corporations and companies under the direct control of the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National railways.

M'GEER CAN SHOW BENNETT NEEDED WORKS

Vancouver Prepares List For Submission to Ottawa

VANCOUVER, Jan. 9.—A special committee will prepare a list of public works which could be carried out in Vancouver if funds were available, following a grant by Mayor G. G. McGeer. The mayor Tuesday termed recent remarks of Prime Minister R. B. Bennett "the most important and profound statement made in Canada since the depression started."

The special committee was named by the civic board of works and will prepare a list of work which could be performed by the city, school, parks and water and sewer boards.

The mayor interpreted recent statements by Premier Bennett as indicating the latter favored a program of works and urged the city to make no time in preparing a work program for submission to the Dominion government. It should also co-operate with the British Columbia government. Other municipalities should also act.

"We have no city hall, no stadiums, no centre of civic music; everything we have is sub-standard," said Mayor McGeer. "Why, if we could perform only a portion of the work which is available there wouldn't be enough men in our army?"

Pacific and Canadian National to unite their telegraph services.

It was attacked as the thin edge of the wedge for the amalgamation of the two railway systems and after a short debate it was withdrawn. It was made clear at the time that while the two companies had asked for the legislation, no decision had been reached to make any such law.

Should the new department include transportation, it would absorb the department of railways and canals and take over the department of aviation now under the department of national defence.

Japanese Girl Will Vote Saar

Investment Dealers' Head Urges Independent Investigation

VANCOUVER, Jan. 9.—An independent investigation of Vancouver's financial position before action on any plan for reduction of bond interest was urged Tuesday by Mayor G. G. McGeer. Tuesday in two telegrams received from R. W. Gounitsky, president of the Investment Dealers' Association of Canada, with headquarters in Toronto, Mayor McGeer replied: "The resolution under consideration by you counselled me no further than to put this city in a proper position to negotiate with bond holders for necessary adjustments. The investing public will be fully informed of the absolute necessity of any action taken."

From the four corners of the earth flock Saar residents of 1919 to vote in the plebiscite Jan. 13.

Even a Japanese girl, Margot Voss, 21, of New York City, will vote, because she was a resident of the Saar in 1919. She is shown here leaving New York for Europe.

BOSTON, Jan. 9.—Furled and snoring on the Boston Bruins last night and gave them their first victory of the season over Toronto Maple Leafs in the 100th game at the Boston Garden. It was the fifth upset the visitors had suffered during this campaign.

Before coming here they bowed out to the Maroons, Rangers and twice to the Detroit Red Wings.

Bill Clapper figured in all of the Bruins' scoring, assisting with Harry Barry on Max Kaminsky's fourth goal in the second minute of play and driving two shots through goalie George Hainsworth in the second session.
